Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On February 7, 2019, the Board of Directors of Rogers Corporation (the “Company”) adopted the Rogers Corporation Severance Plan (the “Severance Plan”), effective as of the same date (the “Effective Date”), to provide severance protection for the Company’s U.S.-based executives and other employees designated by the Compensation and Organization Committee (the “Committee”).

The Severance Plan is intended to (1) provide a market-based severance program to recruit and retain executives on competitive terms, (2) consolidate and standardize the Company’s current severance practices for existing executives, and (3) enhance protections for the Company in connection with executive transitions. In order to participate in the Severance Plan, each participant must execute a participation agreement (the “Participation Agreement”) in which the participant agrees to the terms of his or her participation under the Severance Plan. The Participation Agreement provides that severance payments and benefits provided under the Severance Plan are in place of any other severance payments or benefits to which the participant may be entitled from the Company. Consequently, each named executive officer who has an existing contractual severance arrangement with the Company, including an Officer’s Special Severance Agreement (collectively, the “covered NEOs”), will be required to surrender such rights in order to participate in the Severance Plan.

The Severance Plan provides benefits to a plan participant if the participant (i) is involuntarily terminated by the Company for any reason other than for Cause (as defined in the Severance Plan) or (ii) terminates his or her employment with the Company for Good Reason (as defined in the Severance Plan) ((i) and (ii) are each referred to as a “Qualifying Termination”). The Severance Plan provides default benefit levels for participants, but these benefit levels may be modified by the Committee within a participant’s Participation Agreement. The Committee has approved the following benefits under the Severance Plan for the covered NEOs:

- for the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), a lump sum cash payment equal to the following: (A) the amount determined by multiplying the sum of the CEO’s base salary and target annual bonus by two if the Qualifying Termination does not occur within two years after a Change in Control, and (B) the amount determined by multiplying the sum of the CEO’s base salary and target annual bonus by 2.5 if the Qualifying Termination occurs within two years after a Change in Control;
- for covered NEOs other than the CEO, a lump sum cash payment equal to the following: (A) the covered NEO’s base salary if the Qualifying Termination does not occur within one year after a Change in Control (as defined in the Severance Plan) or before the third anniversary of the covered NEO’s participation in the Severance Plan, (B) the sum of the covered NEO’s base salary and target annual bonus if the Qualifying Termination does not occur within one year after a Change in Control but occurs before the third anniversary of the covered NEO’s participation in the Severance Plan, or (C) the amount determined by multiplying the sum of the covered NEO’s base salary and target annual bonus by two if the Qualifying Termination occurs within one year after a Change in Control;
- subsidized premium payments for continuation of medical and dental insurance coverage following the Qualifying Termination for (A) 12 months, or (B) if the participant is the CEO or if the Qualifying Termination occurs within one year after a Change in Control, 18 months; and
- reasonable outplacement services (with a value not to exceed $50,000) during (A) the 12-month period (24-month period for the CEO) immediately following the Qualifying Termination, or (B) if the Qualifying Termination occurs within one year after a Change in Control, the 24-month period (30-month period for the CEO, but not beyond the end of the second calendar year after the Qualifying Termination) immediately following the Qualifying Termination.

The Severance Plan also provides that the value of, and rights attendant to, each equity or equity-based award held by a participant will be preserved or the award will be cashed out in a manner consistent with the plan and award agreement under which the award is issued. Benefits under the Severance Plan are also conditioned upon a participant’s execution of a general release and separation agreement and compliance with covenants regarding non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement, and confidentiality.

The Severance Plan may be amended, suspended or terminated by the Committee at any time. Any amendment, suspension or termination that reduces the benefits to which a participant is entitled will apply to that participant only with his or her written consent. In addition, the Severance Plan’s Administrator (generally, the Company’s Chief Human Resources Officer) may amend the Severance Plan to the extent that the amendment does not modify the amount or nature of benefits provided or the Administrator’s authority under the Severance Plan.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Severance Plan and the form of Participation Agreement for the Company’s current named executive officers, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
